

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE OF LUCIO BIANCO

- Born in Guardia Lombardi, December 16, 1941.
- Degree in Electrical Engineering at University of Rome, 1966.
- Degree in Aerospace Engineering at University of Rome, 1970.
- Scientist at National Research Council of Italy from 1970 to 1987.
- Associate Professor of Operations Research from 1987 to 1990 at University of Rome "Tor Vergata"
- From 1990 full Professor of Operations Research at University of Rome "Tor Vergata"
- From 1980 to 1997 Director of the Institute of Systems Analysis and Computer Science of National Research Council of Italy.
- From 1981 to 1997 Director of National Research Project on Transportation of National Research Council of Italy.
- From 1997 to 2003, President of National Research Council of Italy.
- From 2004, director of Enterprise Engineering Department of University of Rome "Tor Vergata".
- From 2005, chairman of National Center of Operations Research.
- From 2006, director of Master "Network Systems Engineering" of University of Rome "Tor Vergata".
- From 2007, President of Scientific Council of NITEL.
- Scientific consultant of several public bodies.
- Member of the Editorial Board of National and International Scientific and Technical Journals.
- Authors of about 120 scientific papers and books in the field of Operations Research methodologies and their applications to logistics, transportation and public services.